DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Mrs. M. F. Long, of Le Loup, Franklin Co., Kans., writes: "Words cannot express how grateful I am for your kind advice and good medicines. I have been in poor health more or less all my life. In the past nine years grew worse, and two years ago I was so poorly could hardly drag around. I consulted a specialist, and he said I had ulceration and that an operation would have to be performed. This did not seem necessary to me, so time went by, and at last I wrote to Dr. Pierce asking advice. I soon got a helpful answer advising me to try his medicines, the 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and also his 'Pleasant Pellets.' I began taking 'Favorite Prescription' and the other medicines as advised. When commencing I weighed 119½ pounds, and after taking one bottle of each I felt like a new woman. In one month I gained 8 pounds. After taking two bottles of each of the medicines, I began to look like a woman and not like a skeleton, and that weary tired feeling all left me."

UP TO THE KAISER

European Cabinets Looking For a Modification of Germany's Note.

INTERNATIONAL COURT

The Organization of Such a Tribunal to Try the Boxer Leaders May Be Next Thing in Order.

Germany Continues to Look With a Critical Eye Upon Reply of the United States.

London, Sept. 25.—A semi-official announcement has been issued in St. Petersburg that the European cabinets are engaged in an endeavor to induce Germany to abandon her demand for the surrender of the instigators of the anti-foreign outrages as a preliminary to peace negotiations.

A Vienna correspondent asserts that the Austrian reply to the German note is very friendly, but that although it appears to consent to Germany's proposal, it practically disapproves by asking whether it would not be best to open peace negotiations first and to make the punishment of the instigators of the outrages the first subject of discussion. According to the Berlin correspondent Germany will make a new proposal, namely, that the great powers form an international court to try the Chinese officials accused of complicity in the outrages.

A Shanghai correspondent telegraphing yesterday says: "The Russians recently organized an expedition towards Mukden, which has already reached Nieu Chwang and Mukden. It will probably encounter opposition. Prince Tuan's ascendancy creates a very grave danger. The only hope for foreigners is that the pro-foreign viceroy of Nanking has not yet been received. Tuan's emissaries are working hard to get him out of the way by murder or suicide."

The British and continental press is still discussing America's reply, which is generally regarded as encouraging Li Hung Chang to delay the negotiations.

Gen. Gribsky, military governor of Amur, has published elaborate regulations placing all the regions along the Amur river, now occupied by the Russians, entirely under Russian law and authority. The Chinese are forbidden to return to the left bank of the stream. He has also issued a proclamation declaring the annexation of Manchuria to be a punishment for the attack made on Blagovestchensk and exhorting the inhabitants hereafter to respect Russia's power and live in peace and quietness on their fields.

A semi-official communication to the Cologne Gazette disavowing any desire on the part of Germany to execute the instigators of the outrages on the strength of the testimony of the foreign ministers, says: "The international court of justice would decide upon the question of guilt and would pronounce sentence. To look on complacently while a mockery of justice such as the United States demand was being enacted would mean a renewal of the massacres."

GERMANY STICKS TO IT

America's Answer Does Not Alter the Kaiser's Intentions.

Berlin, Sept. 25.—The refusal of the United States to accede to Germany's proposition regarding the Chinese settlement is prominently commented upon by the entire German press. In spite of the previous intimations through Washington's embassies the refusal has come as a great surprise.

A high foreign official referring to the matter, said: "Germany adheres firmly to her proposition. She has no occasion to doubt that favorable answers will come from all the other powers. We have received hints that Russia will agree to the German note and the same course is confidently expected of Japan and Great Britain. We hope the answer of the United States is not final, especially in view of the possibility that it was influenced by temporary conditions."

The press comment varies widely, although generally in a tone of disapproval and regret. The Vossische Zeitung deplores the "evidences of growing discord among the powers," and predicts a speedy breaking up of concerted action. The Frankfurter Zeitung remarks: "An unpleasant sequence of the American position will probably be the increasing obduracy of the Chinese whose opinion is now strengthened that the energies of the other powers will be intermittent, like those of the United States."

Administration's Good Reasons.

Washington, Sept. 25.—There is a disposition to minimize the differences between the United States and Germany on the point of delivery of the Chinese ringleaders before negotiations and it is pointed out that our only reason for differing was a profound conviction that a different effect could be produced upon the Chinese people as a whole only by allowing their government to degrade and punish the guilty parties. The same punishment, if applied by a foreign power, is said at the state department, would utterly fail of a reformatory effect as the Chinese people would venerate the memory of the martyrs, while the Chinese government which arrogates to itself the peculiar right to reward and punish after death, might elevate the victims of the allies' acts and thus offer incentive for a repetition of the outrages.

The Russians Advancing.

Vladivostok, Sept. 25.—The admiralty has received the following dispatch: "Taku, Sept. 24: The Russians occupied the fortifications at Lu Tai yesterday. Lu Tai is situated about 40 miles northeast of Tientsin and is about 20 miles north of Taku."

Butchery of Christians.

Hong-Kong, Sept. 25.—Advices from Canton say that a boat load of native Christian women at Kun Chuk on West river, was fired upon and that the women were then taken ashore and butchered in cold blood.

GALVESTON'S DEAD

Careful Revision Places the Number at Not Fewer Than 5,000.

Galveston, Sept. 25.—The Galveston News' list of dead from the storm of Sept. 8 represents a total of 3,359 names up to date. The indications are that not more than 4,000 people will be actually accounted for. The News has made a diligent effort to get as complete list of the dead as far as possible. It is reasonable to assume that 800 or 1,000 people were lost whose names are not obtainable, which would make the total death list on Galveston island about 5,000. The News is of the opinion that the death list on the island is slightly below rather than above 5,000. This statement is made notwithstanding the fact that there are close observers at Galveston who are still estimating the death list on the island as high as 7,000.

Affairs in Galveston.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 25.—Under the supervision of Chairman Jens Moller of the committee on public labor, nearly 1,000 men went to work yesterday cleaning the streets and beach fronts of debris and dead bodies. A board of government engineers will be convened in Galveston on Oct. 20 for the purpose of investigating damage to fortifications and jetties and other government property. After being closed for a fortnight the saloons opened yesterday with the consent of the mayor. Gov. Sayers arrived today to confer with the central relief committee in regard to giving out a statement of contributions received for the relief of Galveston; also in regard to providing funds for the support of necessary departments of the city government.

A Texas Town Floodswept.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 25.—A telephone message received here last night by the chief of police from Llano says that San Saba, 40 miles north of that place, containing 1,000 people, was partially swept away by the flood in the San Saba river, which is still rising. All bridges had been carried off. No news can be had from San Saba people, the wires all being down. People in lowlands here have moved out.

More Floods in Texas.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 25.—The Trinity river is higher than it has been since 1890, when it broke all records. Owing to continued heavy rains the prospect is favorable for the stream going past the 1890 mark. No lives have been lost in the immediate vicinity of Dallas but cotton and live stock, notably sheep and hogs, have suffered heavily.

Vesuvius Getting Ruder.

Naples, Sept. 25.—Vesuvius is ready for another cataclysm. A commission of savants sent by the French Academy of Science has just issued a report stating that the temperature in the volcano is steadily rising, liquid lava can be seen near the opening at the crater, and another eruption is imminent. People in the valley have been notified, and they are moving away to places of safety.

REPUBLICAN POLICY.

1890:—OPEN THE MILLS.

1900:—KEEP THEM OPEN.

AGAIN we ask what has become of Adlai Stevenson? Does any one know his war record from '61 to '65? He is now on the side of Aguinaldo and against our soldiers in the Philippines. Was he the friend of the Union soldier? Look up his war record.

How would the people of Indiana like to have the methods Tom Taggart uses in Indianapolis affairs transferred to the state house? The debt of Indianapolis has been increasing ever since Taggart took charge. John Kern is Taggart's city attorney. The state has been paying off her indebtedness very rapidly under republican rule. Let the debt paying continue. It will continue under Colonel Durbin.

THE only federal law against trusts was enacted by a republican congress and signed by a republican president. It was the democrats who defeated the resolution providing for an anti-trust amendment to the constitution. Congressman Griffith and all the democrats in congress but two voted against that resolution, thus putting themselves on record against anti-trust legislation. The republican party is pledged to anti-trust legislation and the republican party fulfils its promises.

WHEN a man sits down and lays aside prejudice and asks what his duties are in this campaign it does not take him long to make up his mind. When he considers his own interests he can readily see where his duty lies. Every thoughtful voter will hesitate a long time before he gives his support to a dishonest and therefore destructive system of finance. No man wants to exchange prosperity for another panic and that is what the election of Bryan would mean. Every man wants the mills kept open and wants the broadest markets possible maintained. The man who loves his country and loves his flag more than he does his party will not give aid and comfort to an enemy. He will stand by his country and the flag, and stand by the boys who are defending them. He will cast his ballot for McKinley and Roosevelt.

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

The boys who organized a republican club Saturday night elected the following officers:

President, Will McKinley.
Vice President, Don Bollinger.
Secretary, Julius Peter.
Sergeant-at-arms, Mount Rains.

For treasurer they went out side their ranks and gave that honor to E. A. Remy.

John M. Lewis will speak at No. 2 school house in Vernon township tonight.

John H. Kamman will speak at the Jaktown school house Thursday evening, September 27.

C. D. Billings and Frank Vance will speak at Clear Spring Thursday night, at which time a McKinley Club will be organized there.

The Powell Marching Club that was organized last Thursday night held a meeting at the city building last night. The house was packed and the meeting was enthusiastic. Quite a number were present who were not members of the club. May or Mills addressed the club briefly but his remarks were to the point and were received with enthusiasm. He was followed by John M. Lewis who made a rousing speech touching briefly on the issues involved in the campaign. At the conclusion of his speech C. H. Lane, Judge Hoover, W. R. England and others were called out and spoke briefly. O. H. Montgomery who was to have spoken at the meeting came home from Columbus sick and therefore was not able to appear.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia. writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at W. F. Peter's drug store.

CAMPAIGN ASSAULT

History of Its Defeat In Methodist General Conference.

PRESIDING ELDER'S STORY

Prohibitionist's Charge Disproved and Attack Defeated.

The Outcome of a Charge of Tippling Against the President and Its Investigation—McKinley "a Pure, Christian Statesman of Whom the Church Might Be Proud"—Defense of the President by a Political Opponent Who Served in Congress With Him.

A presiding elder of one of the most important conferences in the north-west, thoroughly familiar with all of the facts he presents, has written the following to a friend:

"President McKinley should receive the support of the whole moral and religious influence of the country. He is entitled to it by the purity of his private life, by the grand record he has made in congress and since he became president, and by all of the glorious possibilities for the nation and the world that are involved and assured in his re-election. As is well known, President McKinley is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. It is also widely known that Samuel Dickie, for several years chairman of the Prohibition national committee, stated before several meetings of Methodist preachers and in his paper, The New Voice, that at a banquet in Chicago, he saw Mr. McKinley drink four kinds of wine. During a meeting of the missionary committee held in Washington, November, 1899, the bishops being present, Bishop Walden called on the president and asked him as to the facts in the case referred to by Mr. Dickie. Mr. McKinley frankly replied that it had been his custom at banquets not to turn his glasses down, but to leave them to be filled by the waiters the same as the glasses of other guests. But since he became president, and for many years previously, he had not drunk wine at banquets and similar occasions; but he would call for a glass of apollinaris water, as that was his favorite drink on those occasions; that he did not drink the wine at the Chicago banquet as charged.

A Pure, Christian Statesman.

"Bishop Walden related this conversation to the other bishops and at a reception given to the committee by President McKinley at the white house the bishops heartily concurred in the commendatory resolutions passed by the committee, which spoke of Mr. McKinley as a 'pure Christian statesman of whom the church and the nation might well feel proud.' At the general conference in May, 1900, Mr. Dickie was chairman of the committee on temperance, and undoubtedly chagrined that the bishops and great majority of Methodist preachers and laymen had perfect confidence in President McKinley's word, evidently determined to use the general conference to humiliate the president before his own church and the nation. His report, which he succeeded in pushing through the committee, censured the president in severe and bitter terms. When presented to the general conference by Mr. Dickie it produced a decided sensation, especially that part of the report which held the president responsible for the opinion of Attorney General Griggs relative to the canteen and for the sale of intoxicating liquors in the Philippine islands. Dr. J. E. Price presented a minority report, temperately phrased, omitting all censure of President McKinley. This brought the issue squarely before the general conference and gave rise to the most exciting debate. Hon. Charles B. Loe of Delaware, conceded to be one of the ablest laymen in the general conference, said:

"A Political Opponent's Tribute.

"Nothing but an imperative sense of duty compels me to speak. I am heartily and earnestly in favor of the adoption of the minority report for two reasons. The first is, the majority report is historically inaccurate, and for this reason: President McKinley is blamed in that report for practically nullifying the laws of the United States. Did you go back and attack congress because it saw fit to adopt a law which is susceptible of two interpretations? And the interpretation of Attorney General Griggs is recognized by some of the ablest legal minds throughout the United States as the only legal interpretation of the law. Have you passed censure upon congress? No. You praise it. Again, you say that Hon. John D. Long is worthy of praise because he abolished liquor from the navy. Do you know that that is the act of William McKinley through John D. Long? And on the other hand, do you lay your hands upon the president who has given, in his judgment, a correct opinion? Here you have divided yourself and cannot stand. Again let me say to you, I served four years with William McKinley in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth congresses. I was politically opposed to him. I am not in favor of his policy today—if you will allow a judge to have an opinion—in many respects. But I stood beside that man four years and I learned to love his elemental manhood. He was brought up in a Methodist atmosphere and taught by a good old Methodist mother. He stood before me a typical man. He said to me personally, when his seat was contested in the house of representatives, 'If you cannot vote for me, honestly believing that I was elected fairly and fairly, do not do it. I will go home to my constituents again.' I watched his life as he moved up and down in those halls. I found in Washington congressmen in the saloons and in worse places. I have heard of them being there. I will not say I saw them there. That would not be fair. I watched Mr. McKinley's course up and down. Let me tell you that Mr. McKinley, when not at his duty in the halls of congress or in the committee room, was with his invalid wife and did his work in her presence and under her inspiration. He was one of the purest and best men in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth congresses. And while I differ from him, I am unwilling to see this great Methodist conference strike down one of the most loyal men within her borders."

Defeat of the Attack.

"Similar strong, manly, noble words were spoken by other delegates, and when the vote came to be taken Mr. Dickie had the pleasure (?) of seeing that his attack upon the president had proven a boomerang and that portion of his report criticizing Mr. McKinley entirely stricken out and the general conference saved from being made the agent to serve the sinister designs of unfair and unscrupulous partisanship. President McKinley is not only stronger in the Methodist church, but in all the churches, than ever before. Men of all shades of religious and political opinion admire him for his purity of life and for his careful, conservative administration of the duties of his great office. Considering all the difficult problems he has had to deal with, domestic and foreign, he has shown himself so wise, so self-poised, so fair to all legitimate interests, so strictly impartial in the conduct of public affairs, that the people of every section of the country, north, south, east and west, speak of him as 'Our President.' That he will be re-elected by a much larger majority than in the election of 1896 is the wish, the prayer, and the patriotic purpose of every citizen who believes in the progress, the stability, the safety and ever expanding glory of the American republic."

A WOMAN YOU CAN'T SNUB.

Never Trifle With a Skinny Woman If Her Face Shines.

Do you know who is the most exasperating woman in the world? The woman you can't snub. She is two kinds—the meek and lowly sort, that when you smile she turns the other cheek until you positively too tired to deal her another blow, and the one whose self importance is invulnerable as a bullet. I met one of the latter kind early in the winter. On general principles I would avoid this woman, because she is all wrong about a skinny woman; one way or another she's dangerous.

When a skinny woman's face shines, it means she's above using powder and make-up to make a parade, as a virtue, of the very wrong that is to account for the lack of flesh on her bones. I couldn't help the woman calling on me, and returned her first call rather than run the risk of what she might do to me if I violated this fundamental principle of right social action as prescribed by every etiquette book in the land. When she called a second time, she addressed me as "my good woman." I can forgive almost anything but being called a good woman. Only a mental or mediocrity past 40 is properly termed a good woman. I resolved to snub this creature, and I wanted her to know I was snubbing her. I would never return her visit—never. And how do you suppose she takes it? Every time she sees me she apologizes to me for not having returned my visit—blots my intended neglect of her out of mind and patronizes me with the assumption that it is she who is neglecting me. Mark the wisdom I have uttered.

Never trifle with a skinny woman if her face shines.—Washington Star.

Green's Floor Bedrooms.

There is danger in the porous character of plaster ceilings, which are often very thin indeed. The ordinary ceiling is "only a porous diaphragm permeable by gases with considerable freedom." The vitiated air of sitting rooms therefore frequently finds its way through into bedrooms. The British Medical Journal asks any skeptic to "compare his bodily and mental sensations after sleeping in such a room and in one situated over a similar room well ventilated and not occupied or illuminated by gas during the evening." The remedy, it says, is to have bedrooms on the ground floor and living, working and cooking rooms up stairs. But how about noise?—London Chronicle.

An Incredulous Lawmaker.

It is recalled that when the projector of the railroad up Mount Washington sought a charter from the New Hampshire legislature one of the lawmakers, in his speech on the subject, said, "Give the fool permission, but he might as well ask for a railroad to the moon." But the railroad is still running to the Tip Top House.—Buffalo Commercial.

We had concluded not to pay any more attention to the writing of that comic valentine who writes to the Banner from this place, but since she, he or it insists on throwing out insinuations as to our thick headedness and record we will simply invite a comparison of the two. This would be Joan of Arc of the popercate party in this township will have to learn a number of things before it leads its party to victory next November. Of course, we know the beauty of one of "its" smiles will captivate many voters, but then they know the smile is the only original thing about it. "Its" insinuations are unworthy of notice but if "it" wishes to keep it up all right. We have never made pretensions as to sainthood, neither have we ever lacked just one-half of our present, in making two years' license.

"What's the Time?"

A booklet with this title, just published by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, should not only be in the hands of every traveler, but should have a place on the desk of every banker, merchant or other business man.

The four "Time Standards" which govern our entire time system and which are more or less familiar to most of the traveling public, but by many others little understood, are so fully explained and illustrated by a series of charts, diagrams and tables that any one who chooses can become conversant with the subject in question. There are also some twenty-four tables by which almost at a glance, the time at any place be given, the hour and day can be ascertained in all the principal cities of the world.

A copy of the pamphlet may be had on application to Geo. H. Headford, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, enclosing two-cent stamp to pay postage.

A Health Resort.

County Councilmen.

Attorney-General Taylor has been receiving numerous inquiries respecting the election of county councilmen and yesterday prepared the following opinion which has been accepted by the state chairman of both parties as final:

"The act of 1899 provides for the election of three councilmen at large from each county and four councilmen to be elected, each from his respective district. It provides for the division of the county into four councilmanic districts. The three councilmen at large will be voted for by all the voters in the county; but the councilmen representing each of the four districts will be elected by the voters in their respective districts.

"All of these seven councilmen are county officers and the vote therefor must be canvassed by the county canvassing board. That being the case the names of the three councilmen at large will be upon all the county ballots, and, in addition thereto, the councilmen from the districts will be placed only upon the ballots voted in their districts respectively, so that there will have to be four forms of county ballots in each county. These four forms of county ballots will be exactly alike, except as to the name of the district councilman."

A Young Woman Suicides.

Miss Anita Rider, daughter of John W. Rider, committed suicide at the family home in Scottsburg, Monday forenoon, by taking morphine. She was found in a half conscious state and a physician was sent for, but she refused to take any medicine whatever. She had made up her mind to die and had planned carefully to that end. Before taking the morphine she wrote a note giving directions as to her burial, selecting her pall bearers and stating how she wished to be buried for burial. She also said that she wanted to be buried at Crothersville. There is more or less speculation as to the cause of her suicide but the public knows nothing conclusive about it. She was sixteen years old.

A STORM'S FREAK
Barn Lifted Bodily Comes Down on a Saloon and Kills Eight.
Fairbault, Minn., Sept. 25.—A terrible catastrophe visited the village of Morrisstown, 10 miles west of Fairbault, shortly before 6 o'clock last evening. The village was struck by a cyclone and a barn was raised in the air and dropped directly on top of Paul Gatzke's saloon, where 16 people took refuge from the storm. The saloon collapsed and all occupants were buried in the debris. Eight dead bodies and three fatally injured persons were taken from the ruins and others were severely hurt.
The storm came without warning from a southwesterly direction, passing over to the northeast. The length of its path in the village was less than half a mile, but owing to its peculiar action, the distress and damage resulting were not as great as they might have been. The storm made jumps of one block, but whenever it came down everything was crumpled by the power of the wind. The barn was the first structure destroyed and this was one of the freak features of the storm.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 25.—Dr. Peter George Paul Attias and wife of Greece are in the city en route around the world on their honeymoon trip. The trip is being made on a wagon of $25,000, the terms being that Dr. Attias must return to London, England, by Aug. 12, 1901, that he make the trip by steamer, rail, streetcar, automobile or on foot and must have a certain sum of money with him, which must be made on his way. Dr. Attias started with a six-pence and has made a very successful journey so far. He takes photographs of various interesting sights he sees, and sends them on postal cards to subscribers throughout the country.

Murdered For His Money.
Ironton, O., Sept. 25.—George W. Noble, a prominent farmer living alone on Buffalo creek, in this county, was murdered for his money. His body, partially devoured by hogs, was found in the yard of his residence by a young woman who stopped for a drink. Blood-stained clubs and walls splattered with blood gave evidence of a life and death struggle with his murderers. The house had been ransacked by the murderers, who overlooked a large sum. No clew to the guilty parties.

Tragedy at Louisville.
Louisville, Sept. 25.—Dr. Hugh M. McCullough, coroner of Jefferson county, last night shot and killed George Owen, 21 years old, at the latter's home, 1621 Mellwood avenue. Coroner McCullough was arrested and denied bail. The McCullough and Owen families are neighbors, but recently fell out, the trouble culminating in last evening's tragedy. Dr. McCullough refuses to make a statement.
